

Celebrate families during Reunification Week!

June 13-19, 2010

"Reunification takes a lot of work, but being with your child is all that matters. Kids want to be with their parents. There's nothing like that bond."

— Dave Taub, Veteran Parent who works with parents in all stages of the child welfare system

Draw your picture in the box below:

Tell us a little about your drawing. Who is in the picture? What are they doing? What would you like us to know about the picture?

This is my Dad's House. Its me my Brother and Dad and Shairy Comeing Back. running to Dad. am so Happy ☺

People change and families reunite. Sometimes the best home for children is with their own parents.

For more information about Reunification Week events in your area or to get involved with Parent Advocacy Committees, call 1-800-456-3339 or visit catalystforkids.org